AIN'T NO STOPPIN' US NOW

There's been so man-y things that held us down.

But now it looks like things are fin-al-ly com-in' a-round.

I know we've got a long, long way to go.

And where we'll end up
I don't know.

But we won't let nothin' hold us back
We're gonna put our show together
We're gonna polish up our act, well
And if you've ever been held down before,
I know you'd refuse to be Held down anymore, well-

Chorus

Ain't no stop-pin' us now
We're on the move.

Ain't no stop-pin' us now,
we got the groove.

McFADDEN & WHITEHEAD

WE'RE ON THE MOVE!!!

Is it time to go home???

Who loves you babe???

Just what it says!!!

What do you mean, "I'm doing the wrong assignment?"

I wonder? . . .

Guess who?

I don't believe it!!!

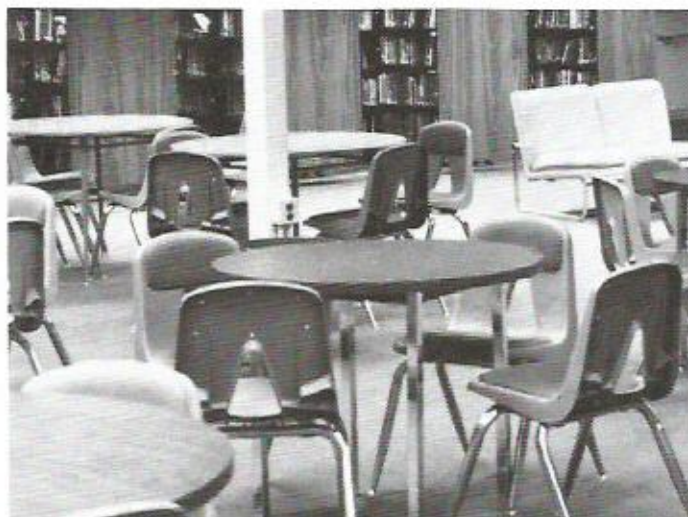

Run . . . Run . . . Run . . . Run

Standing room only!

Go to *!*

Today Calvert High . . . Tomorrow the Gong Show

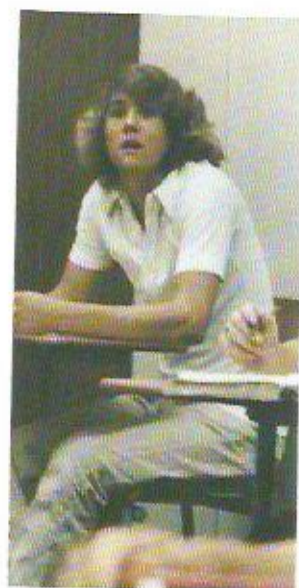

Onward Christian Soldiers!!!

Stop it . . . This isn't the time.

Oh no . . .

What???

Smile

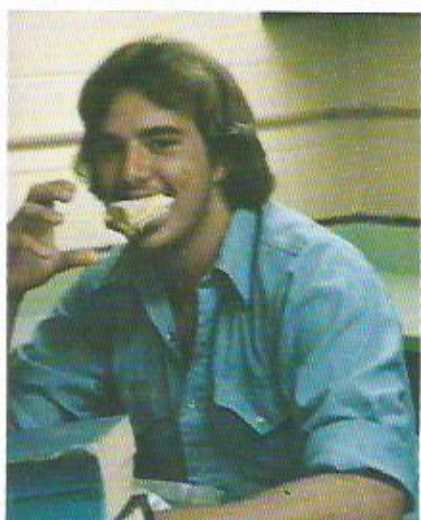

Meatball maybe . . . but super???

If you knew what I was thinking, you'd laugh too.

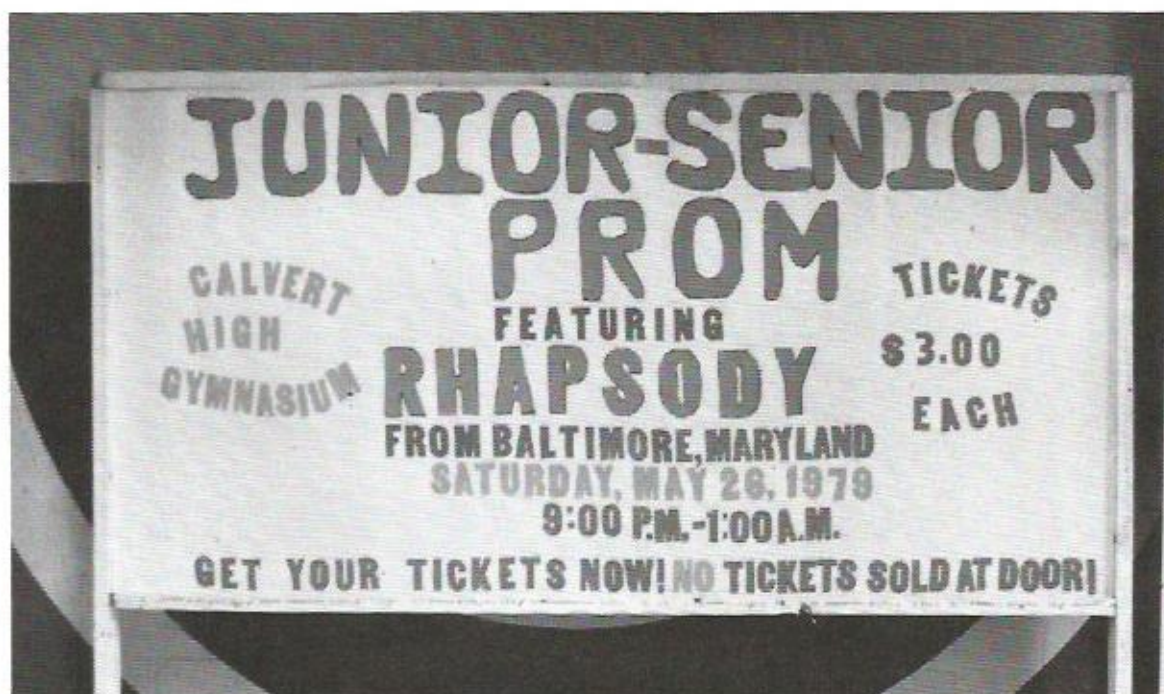

A familiar sight.

Go eat a wiener!!!

Big event of a high school student.

Pep talk.

Sexy legs!!!

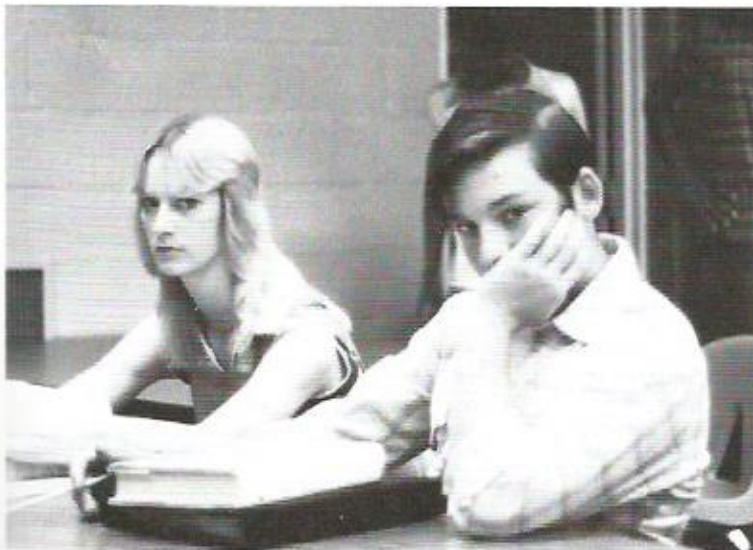

Where's my dime?

Last Will and Testament

WE THE SENIOR CLASS OF CALVERT HIGH SCHOOL, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty do, make, and declare this to our Last Will and Testament.

As our high school days draw to a close, we do hereby, in a fairly sound state of mind, bequeath the following:

Article I

To the faculty and administration, our gratitude for their patience, guidance and understanding during all our years at Calvert High School.

To the underclassmen, we bequeath all of our many good times at Calvert.

Article II

I, Casandra Mackall, bequeath all good luck to my brother Timothy Mackall in his English work, and hoping that all Mr. Delee's English Class would be nice to him.

I, Mike Hollowell, bequeath Bob Burns the responsibility to run the video recorder for Calculus Class. And Jay Upton my smelly Gym locker, also to any poor soul that happens to take calculus my book; almost unused!

I, J. Arthur Moreland Jr., bequeath that all of you find salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord and, may God richly bless you all.

I, Lisa Buck, bequeath all my fun times at the Vo-Tech to Mr. Hook. And to all the freshmen, a note of sorrow that you have THREE more years!

I, Donna Dove, bequeath all my business books and grades, to Dana Dove. My luck in skipping to Jenifer Parks.

I, Mary Ann Willis, bequeath all my good times to Lisa Wood, I leave my majorette uniform to whoever it will fit, to all that is left at Calvert High School I wish you the best of luck.

I, Deborah L. Rivera, do hereby bequeath: to my brother my ambition to succeed and to Mr. Presa I leave all the joyous memories of his ADVANCED Spanish IV class, and also a piece of chewed bubble gum I stuck under his desk one day for safe keeping.

I, Kathy Kelly, leave to my brother, Robbie, my straight A grades. To Stacey Wiley I leave my place in line on the school telephones.

I, Debi Humphreys, leave Sheila Cooney my first chair in band, and all the fun times to Vicki Hayes.

I, Gale Mason, bequeath all my good grades to my brother Woody and my sisters Puff, and Patty. And the best of luck to all the underclassmen.

I, Sharon Ann Blasko, bequeath to Julie Elliott and Kristin Thomas, my ability to "get around" the administration and its rules; To all the French students, my seat at Zalc's desk and my hot cocoa mug. And to all the underclassmen, my level of sanity (or is it insanity) used to get me through these last few years!!

I, Connie Graham, bequeath my knowledge to my brother Chris and my boyfriend Fred Keemer. My knowledge of English to Chris and my way of keeping out of trouble to Fred. And to wish them the best in their Senior Year. (Hopefully they'll make it!)

I, Jackie Mason, bequeath all my bad luck in Data Processing to Woody Peck. I also will leave a little of my knowledge to the ones who need it.

I, Suzette Anderson, would like to leave Ms. Reynolds my talents to pass on to a new art student including the wisdom and intelligence I have gained while at Calvert. I would also like to leave all the future Calvert High Students the ability to get involved in their school's clubs, organizations, and athletics and enjoy themselves while passing their time here, and thus enhance their school for future students.

I, Laura Penrod, bequeath to my brother Dana, the ability to come out of hiding since I'm not here to bug him and deny his existence. Good luck kiddo, you'll need it. To Kim Fletcher I wish the best of luck next year and many thanks for all the lunches spent talking to you. To Kathy and Donna, I leave all the memories of the past year, thanks for being here for me to talk to and lean on, and our undying hatred for our mutual enemy. To Bernie, Fabie, Greg, and Jerry many thanks for a lot of good times. To Mr. Williams, thanks for getting me interested in Cross Country and helping me to get accepted into High Point. Also, my thanks to Ms. Eshelman for helping me become more confused than I ever thought possible.

I, Edgar Marshall, bequeath my charm and great body to the entire eleventh grade female class. And my ability to make trouble and get away with it to anybody who'll take it.

I, Joyce Willett, bequeath Carlene Jacks all my ability to go all the way through school. And I leave Jackei Hawkins the scissors from Ms. Whites room. I leave Tyrone Jacks my laugh and hope he will go all the way.

I, Janice Smith, bequeath thanks to Ms. Gross and Ms. Wood for helping me to become a beautician.

I, Roxanne Osborne, bequeath to Norma Trass all my fun times at Calvert, and my business books and to all students of Calvert the best of luck through the coming years.

I, Jim Kesecker, bequeath all of my problems and serious difficulties to the staff of Calvert High. To my sister all of my few good times at Calvert. To Debbie Kay I leave my ability to deal with the problems of getting through those times sitting in Mr. Korsnicks office.

I, Liz Upton, bequeath to my brother Jay all my love and best wishes in the years to come in English; you'll need it.

I, Minne Waul, bequeath all my grades to Maxine Jefferson and all my good running to Alison. And Sharon, give all my skip days to Brenda Thomas.

I, Cindy Pitcher, bequeath to my sister Robin the ability to get through school like I did. And to my brother I leave my confidence and ability to stand up for what I believe in. And to the students of Calvert the best of luck in the future years to come, because they will need it.

I, Cindy Collins, bequeath all my books etc. . . . to my sister Missy, all my bad times to Lynn Hurley, and all my fun times to Little Wood (Lisa).

I, Sondi, bequeath to Missy Pitcher my seat at the lunch table, to Stacy Wiley the time writings I never passed.

I, Jill Hall, bequeath my parking space to my sisters, Lisa and Donna, my height to Nancy Reid, my graceful movements to Mr. "T", my seat in band to whoever wants it, my job as editor of this yearbook to whoever loves headaches, a years supply of razor blades to Frank Carson, my test papers from Chemistry to whoever pays the highest price for it, all my money to my youngest sister, and anything else that is left, which isn't much to Sheila Cooney.

I, Gladys Sewell, bequeath height to Kay Sturdevant.

I, Hazel Sutton, bequeath to Mary Sutton, my talent in art.

I, John Woodward, bequeath to Steven Woodward my front seat on the bus, and all the fun that I had in carpentry.

I, Sharon Wallace, bequeath my determination to strive for the best, my pride, my respect for others, my eagerness to learn, my cooperativeness, my willing to try to help others, my patience and my hard working teachers to my daughter, Latisha Talisha Brooks.

I, Rhonda Yates, bequeath to my brother Mike and Kris and my favorite cousin Todd, all my love and best wishes in their upcoming years at Calvert High. And to my friend, Debbie to leave hope that someday you will find a special friend to share your upcoming years with. I would also like to leave to our vice-principal, Mr. J. Korsnick and Mr. Hook, all my love and respect and sincere gratitude for helping and encouraging both Gail and I throughout our years at Calvert High. I only hope someday I'll have the opportunity to repay you both for all you have done for me. Thanks again and God Bless You!!!

I, Bernice Buck, bequeath to Jackie Hawkins and "Terrible" all my good times and more.

I, Wanda Buck, bequeath my good looks and figure to Mrs. White and my fun times to my son and sister Brenda, and my acting to Violet and Robin, and my working habits to my brother, Steve.

I, Charles Downs, bequeath twenty pounds to Hal Evans, my dull clothes to Jay Upton, and 600 Krimpies to the cafeteria workers.

I, Carol Tant, bequeath to my sister, Joyce, the ability to stay out of trouble. To the students of Calvert High, the best of my luck in the oncoming years.

I, Debbie Bowles, bequeath all my good grades to my sisters, Mary and Karen. My craziness to Vicki, Robin, and Kim, and all good and bad times to everyone.

I, Kathy Thomas, bequeath my good habits of going to class and working hard to Alma Thomas. I leave  $\frac{1}{2}$  of my art talent to Gwen Reynolds and  $\frac{1}{2}$  to Alma Thomas. I hope both of you the best of luck at Calvert High School in the future.

I, Gail Wood, bequeath to my sisters Debbie and Kim all my love and good times in Calvert High. To my friend Aleta I leave my memories of my senior year and to succeed to be a 1982 graduate.

I, Brenda Freeland, bequeath knowledge to my brother Keith.

I, Phillip Fowler, bequeath my spot behind the field house and my spot at Mr. Korsnick's office to all people who get caught behind the field house.

I, Kelley Langley, bequeath to my little sister Tracey the ability to get through C.H.S. smoothly without causing any trouble and to get along with her teachers. I leave the best of luck to the freshman class, cause they will need it! Especially Kirk Langely!!

I, Andrea Beverly, do. bequeath to all of Calvert High my uncanny ability to worry not and to look above tedious things.

I, Annie Long, bequeath all my fun times to my sister Penny, and hopes she has better times than I did. To all my friends that will still be here I wish you all the luck, because you are going to need it.

I, Renee Carnes, bequeath all of my abilities to my brother Joseph and hope to see him get through without any problems, and also give all my luck to the underclassmen and hope to see them get through the year or years to come. I also wish to Mr. Korsnick and Mr. Prince all the best of luck because they will need it! Good Luck!!!

I, Diane, bequeath my grades to Alison Weems and my skip days to Phylis Jefferson and Tammie Johnson.

I, Jacqueline Parran, bequeath all my ability with Barbara and Dora to help them to find a good job.

I, Mary Chase, bequeath thanks to Mrs. White and Mrs. Douglas, two of my best teachers of C.H.S. To my brothers Calvin and Michael, please stay in school and follow the rules and take what comes in life. To all of the underclassmen, when it comes to a test don't give up, because you can always give your best.

I, Tammy Elliott, bequeath to our Spanish class the ability to pass their final exams!!!

I, Faith White, bequeath to the brothers and sisters of Calvert High my ability to struggle when times get hard.

I, Dale Cochrane, bequeath to all the underclassmen in typing class my great grades and to all the underclassmen I leave the underclasswomen!!!

I, Chip Wood, bequeath all my soccer abilities to David Brown, and my dancing abilities to John Shannon.

I, Billy Copsey, bequeath my welding booth to Billy Curry. My seat at the lunch table to Scott Coster, my place in the feudal effort to some sorry underclass person.

I, Grant Helms, bequeath all my friendship and love to all my friends that will still remain here at Calvert High!

I, Marlene Thomas, bequeath my ability to run to my sister Marcia, my shortness to my nephew Nakial.

I, Rick Debolt, bequeath my Chemistry Book to anyone who is unfortunate enough to end up in the class. My parking spot to anyone who has a Mustang II, and to Johnathan Brewster my sense of humor.

I, Jackie Mackall, bequeath to my sister Myra my knowledge in typing and my typing speed. To my brother Elmore, my knowledge in all my classes and my patience to get to my senior year.

I, Linda Koehn, leave all my books to everyone who is foolish enough to take them. My locker to my brother Brian, and a drop of sorrow for all the underclassmen who are freshmen because you have THREE MORE YEARS!!!

I, Marsha Long, bequeath my learning abilities to my twin brothers and hope they will use them to make it through school. To my brother Gene my good behavior.

I, Mike A. Cox, bequeath my parking space to my brother, and my love for snow to Mr. Prince.

I, Patricia Moore, bequeath my parking space and my Elvis Presley tapes to my brother John, my interest and seat in Health Occupation to all future nurses and luck to anyone who takes Chemistry.

I, Dennis McNeil, bequeath all of my unworthy belongings to my brother Chris, my knack for getting into trouble and then getting out — scott free to Donna Walker, my room to Sybol, Kristin, Marsha, and to whomever will fit, my charm, friendly nature and intelligence to Julie, and I might take this time to wish everyone who is staying on here at Calvert good luck, cause you will need it.

I, Sandra Parran, bequeath to my brother the ability to move around this school and the people in it without getting caught. To Mr. Brown, I leave happiness and success in all future endeavors because of the encouragement and friendship he gave to me. To everyone else I leave the good times I've had in good old C.H.S.

I, Greg Fabricante, bequeath to my brother Corey all the foolishness he can handle and to Johnny Thompson, my bionic arm and golden glove so he may help the baseball team to continue a winning tradition.

I, Roxanne Osborne, bequeath to Norma Trass all my fun times at Calvert High, and my business books to all students of Calvert High the best of LUCK through the following years.

I, Kathy Wilkes, bequeath all my classes with Mr. Williams to Brad Dowell in hope that he understands him better than I do.

I, Kevin McKnett, bequeath Philip Fowler to the Society for the Prevention of Social Impotence, my height to David Ogden, my earphones to Barry Dowell, and 300 stolen and stale Krimpets to Hal Evans whom I don't even know.

I, Arlisa Mason, bequeath all my bad luck to Mr. Murray in the Data Processing room, and I hope the class that he gets next year will ask him smart questions, so he can't give them a smart answer.

I, Roy Lawrence, bequeath my football uniform to any underclassmen who thinks they can play as well as I did. And to Lisa, I leave all my great times at school and our love for years to come.

I, Sharon Garrett, bequeath to my sister Angela my knowledge in mathematics, to my brother Kevin my knowledge in English and my way of keeping out of trouble. I leave to Carlene Jacks my powerful way of keeping my cool and to Rita Smith I leave my foul shots and to Lynda Mason, I leave all my success and to all the Seniors that didn't graduate I wish them much luck next year.

I, Rose Anne D'Agostino, bequeath to Marsha Day my Himmy and Jean's right rear tire. To Tracey B. I leave Aunt Jenny's pool sticks and my seat in the office. To Teresa and Kim T. Also the best of luck to the Class of 1980. As for my textbooks and schoolwork, anyone can do with them whatever they wish.

I, Barbara Washington, bequeath my ability to get along with people to Debbie Gray, my skip days and my long fingernails to Linda Butler, my good grades in math and gym to my son Terrence and my ability to learn to my brother Milford.

CLASS PROPHECY 1980

A well-known producer in Hollywood planned to make a great new movie. He had to find people in all walks of life to take part in the movie. He called upon the two most famous people in Hollywood, Samuel Bowers, an actor, and Edgar Marshall, a director, to travel around the world to find people who could be in the movie.

They left from International Airport in California. Alvin Adams, who is just out of the Air Force, is the pilot. Miriam America and Jane Dern are the co-pilots. The stewardesses are Rhonda Yates, Susan Tant, Patricia Moore, Cheryl Kyler, Kathy Kelly, Roxanne Gross, Brenda Commodore, Patricia Crunkleton, Lisa Buck, Aretha Gross, Jackie Mason, and Marlene Thomas.

After a few hours of travel they reach New York. On Broadway they meet Jill Hall, Teresa Shire, Carrie Gross, Mary Chase, Carol Morgan, Sandra Woodward, Pamela Byrd, and Annie Long, who are singing with the Metropolitan Opera. Mike Cox and Richard DeBolt attend the Club Tropicana where Michael Korsnick, Greg Fabricante, Bruce Fowler, Kevin Jones, James Moore, and Dennis McNeil are starring.

Kevin McKnett and his wife, Sharilyn Dawkins, who is well known for her chain of food stores, invite Carlise Thomas, John Woodward, Donna Thomas, John Brown, Susan Foote, and Kevin Keegan to their Fifth Avenue home. Samuel and Edgar were also invited.

The next morning Samuel and Edgar leave for Paris. They are greeted at the plane by our ambassadors to France, Sharon Blasko, James Moreland, Diane Parker, and James Lawson. They are taken to a side walk cafe where Karen Miesner and Mike Hollowell are singing. Samuel and Edgar later attend a fashion showing at a store owned by Chris Albrecht and Grant Helm. Virginia Johnson plays the music for the showing. La Gladys Long, Patty Parker, Tiana Torney, Wanda Buck, Laura Nims, and Deborah Rivera are the models.

After getting enough people in Paris for the movie, the plane leaves for Africa. They are greeted by Joseph Oliff, the white Ramar of the Jungle. He takes them to Camp Wala Wala where they meet Tammy Morris, John Parran, Vada Brooks, Leah Doran, Jay Lankford, and Marsha Long who are teaching the natives how to do the Hustle.

From there the plane goes to Australia. The plane is met by Barry Porch and Damian Wills who owns the largest ranch in the country. They are soon told where they can find good actors so they get on the plane again and head for Hawaii.

After landing, they head for the Hotel Regal, where they find David Chase, William Buckler, Mike Bowen, Dale Cochrane, Mike D. Cox, Lee Davis, Lewis Johnson, Byran Klecz, James Kesecker, Bert Henson, Mike McDaniel and Melvin Mason who dance and sing at the hotel. At night Samuel and Edgar visit another club and they find Shelley Lohmar, the owner of the club, and Debra Wills, the co-owner. The stars of the show are Marcia Waul, Kathy Thomas, and Cheryl Tucker, a comedy team. They also see the world famous Disco Dancers, William Boggs, Charles Bowen, Suzette Anderson, Deborah Barnes, William Copsey, James Burton, Lynn Dent, Rita Kent, and Aleasa Hutchins.

After a few hours of leisure they are off once again to China, where they are greeted by a famous scientist, John Mister. In China they stop off at the great Chop Suey Haven for lunch, which was owned by Casandra Mackall, Garland Mason, Gary Mullen, and Steven Savoy. After the delicious meal which was prepared by the world famous cook, Gerald Parker, Samuel and Edgar were on their way to Russia.

There they met with Roy Lawrence, President of the International Olympic Committee. He told us where we would find McKinley Mackall, Janice Smith, Minnie Waul, and Edward Bowen, who are trying for the gold medal in track. John Denton, Barry Dowell, Charles Downs, Phillip Fowler, Antonio Hampton, and Kenneth Hance are trying to break the Worlds Record in bobsledding. Rose Ann D'Agostino, Donna Dove, Susan Foote, Judy Gott, Tammy Elliott, Dietrich Foote, Deborah Humphreys, Linda Koehn, and Nina Harris are trying for the gold medal in figure skating.

From there the plane went to Alaska, where Captain Clinton Hurley met the plane. That afternoon they attended the famous dog sled races. In the first sleigh there was Michael Harris, the captain, and his helpers Patrick McConnell, Michael Miller, Marshall Mackall, and Kenneth Montgomery getting the dogs ready. On the second team where Dana Williams, the captain, with his helpers Gilbert Walls, Bruce Wallace, Randy Thomas, and Lemuel Thomas.

For entertainment the band, Cold as Ice, starring Mike McMahon, Dale Merkle, Kevin Bowlby, and Faith White sing their big chart hit, My Life, My Story, My Mistake, which was written for them by Conrado Fabricante.

After this big affair the plane was off again, this time it was headed for Washington, D.C. where they were met by Denise Mackall, Patricia Melcher, and Hazel Sutton, Presidents of the Duracell Co. Everyone was taken to the annual bake-off of the Miss Betty Smith cooking contest where John Persinger, Mike Rawlings, and Kevin Robinson took first place for their up side down apple pie. Andrea Beverly, Mary Black, Deidre Bourne, and Cindy Collins took first place for their creation of the dream dog slurpee. The big event of the day was the eat-a-mountain contest which was made up of 2340 gallons of rocky road ice cream. The contestants were Joseph and Peter Abrecht, Kelley Burchfield, Bernice Buck, Irene Carnes, Brenda Freeland, Sharon Garrett, Connie Graham, and Jeff Elliott. After about five hours they all got sick and had to be rushed to the hospital where doctors Bernard Fowler, John Gott, and Scott Kanarr treated them. Jacqueline Mackall, the head nurse also helped the doctors.

After everyone left the hospital Samuel and Edgar once again left in search of talent for the movie. They didn't go far when they came upon a large group of animals. The circus was in town. The ring master was Gale Mason. In the center ring was Janet Mackall with her assistants Debbie Bowles, Bernard Shea, Sue Shenton, and Mark Smith. The clowns were Elizabeth Upton, Kimberly Waldron, Gail Wood, and Michele Edwards. The flying trapeze artists were David Gilner, Randy Hagelin, David Hall, Jeanette Hall, Raymond Jarcy, and Janice Mackall.

The Fierce lion tamer, Sandra Parran, attempts to drive her lions through a flaming hoop while her assistants Gladys Sewell, Paul Goldsmith, Dudley Dawkins, and Cindy Pitcher keep the tigers quiet.

While attending the circus, Samuel and Edgar meet the President of the United States, Eugene Wood, and the Vice President Thomas Smith. The Secretary of State, William Harrod, introduces us to Congressmen Dale Johnson, Melvin Jones, Kevin Hutchins, Allen Smith, and Anthony Woods. We also met the Treasurer, Lesha Hawkins.

Everyone Samuel and Edgar met had agreed to be in Hollywood on June 1, 1989, for the beginning of the movie. Sharon Wallace, Kathy Wilkes, Glenda Willett, Joyce Willett, and Barbara Washington agreed to do the makeup for the movie. Roxanne Osborne, Jacqueline Parran, Laurie Rickett, Karen Williams, Blinda Washington, Mary Willis, and Laura Penrod would work on the costumes.

When everyone arrived, Denise Williams, the producer, who had thought of making this movie said that this was just a stunt to get all the members of the Senior Class of 1980 together again.

Everyone enjoyed themselves and returned to their chosen fields of work. They all consented to meet, however, ten years later.

GOD BLESS ALL THE MEMBERS
OF THE CLASS OF 1980 TILL WE MEET AGAIN!!!!
