Miss me, but let me go when I come to the end of the road and the sun has set me free.

*I want no rights in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free.*

Miss me a little, but not too long, and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the Lord we once shared miss me but let me go.

For this journey we all must take, and each must go alone.

It's all a part of the master's plan, a step on the road to home, so when you're lonely and sick at heart, go to friends you know.

Bury your sorrow in doing good deeds miss me, but let me go.
